How to reach

Culham
Science Centre

CULHAMCARSHARE.COM - Culham Science Centre's carsharing website.

As part of UKAEA's commitment to reduce the number of cars on the roads, cut pollution and save money whilst also protecting the environment, Culham Science Centre has teamed up with LiftShare, the largest implementer of car-sharing systems in the UK. The culhamcarshare.com website not only promotes car sharing but also gives information on other transport options available to you.

Culhamcarshare.com is absolutely free to use with a steadily growing number of potential carsharers registering their journeys to and from Culham Science Centre. Whether you are looking to share your journey or looking for a lift to work, why not log on today. You might just find your perfect match!

How to reach Culham Science Centre

By road

M40 from the North, take junction 9 to A34 towards Abingdon. Exit the A34 at Abingdon, Travel east, through the town and exit on the A415 towards Dorchester. The Culham Science Centre is on the left, 3 miles after crossing the River Thames.
M40 from London take junction 7, take A329 through Stadhampton, then the B4015 to Clifton Hampden. At the traffic lights at Clifton Hampden turn right onto the A415. Culham Science Centre is 1 mile ahead on the right.

By rail

Culham railway station is a five minute walk from site. From there you can catch trains to Oxford and Didcot Parkway. Didcot Parkway station is situated within 5 miles and is on the main line between London Paddington and Bristol Temple Meads.

For up to date timetable/information/scheduled engineering works/delays please check First Great Western's website at www.firstgreatwestern.co.uk.

By bus

Heyfordian Travel operate the 114 and 116 Oxford/Abingdon/Wallingford routes, offering regular service to and from Culham Science Centre. For up-to-date timetables see www.heyfordian.travel or Tel: 01869 241500.
